

NCRSP LEGISLATIVE TIMELINE: COUNTDOWN TO NOVEMBER 6, 2018

Although the short session of the General Assembly doesn't start until May, special sessions continue to pass legislation. Watch for alerts from NCRSP!

MARCH

- Contact current NC legislators in your district and describe NCRSP goals.
- Meet legislators in their offices or invite them to one of your meetings.
- Ask them to address our goals and ask them questions to find out their views. (See "Seven Questions" document)
- Contact leaders of NCAE-Active groups in your region and ask for a joint meeting.
- Contact other similar goal-minded groups (retired groups, voter groups) to determine potential collaborations.
- Join NCAE-Active members to research and interview candidates running in the May 8th Primary.
- Join other groups in offering voter registration and education by the April 13th deadline* for registration for the May 8 primary; support NCAE endorsed candidates.

APRIL

- Register people until April 13; remind voters they can still register at Early Voting.
- Work for retiree/public education friendly candidates; encourage early voting.
- Inform people if there are important constitutional amendments on the ballot.

WATCH FOR ALERTS!

MAY

- Vote in May 8 Primary Election for pro-retiree, pro-education candidates for U.S. House, NC Legislature, NC Supreme Court, Judges, local races.
- Collaborate with NCAE Active locals to research and interview winning candidates elected in the primary.
- Watch for alerts regarding activities of the current General Assembly.
