

2023 NEA-R/NEA Delegate Nomination

Complete all blanks on this form. For this nomination to be valid, it must be received at NCRSP state office by 5:00 PM on Monday, December 5, 2022. A complete and timely submission is the sole responsibility of the candidate; there are no exceptions for incomplete forms or late deliveries by mail.

All qualified candidates may nominate themselves.

Nominee qualifications and acceptance form:

- I attest that I have paid my dues for both NCRSP and NEA-Retired for the 2022-2023 membership year and I hereby submit my name as a candidate.
- If elected, I agree to attend the NEA-R Annual Meeting in its entirety. I understand that any expense reimbursement will be subject to the reimbursement rules in the NCRSP Policies that are in place at the deadline for the delegate election.
- I understand that, if I take any action before July 1, 2023, that results in my no longer being qualified for membership in NCRSP, I must immediately email the state office at info@ncrsp.org of my change in status and that I will no longer be qualified to be a delegate.

Name to appear on ballot (Print): _____

Signature of nominee: _____ SS # (Last 4): _____

Full address: _____

Phone Number: (____) _____ - _____ Email address: _____

Local unit where a member: _____

Submission instructions: Form via mail to: NCRSP, ATTN: Delegate Nomination
3700 Glenwood Ave., Suite 510, Raleigh, NC 27612.

Submitting the following items is optional.

- A typed 100-word or less biography of the nominee’s involvement in NEA/NCAE/NCRSP, with the nominee’s name and local unit at the top. Submissions that exceed the 100-word limit will be edited for length.
- A current, color photo of the nominee, preferably a “head and shoulders” shot with a light background. Do not send a clipped newspaper photo.

Submit your bio (in Word or text-only format) and a photo (in JPEG format) when you submit your nomination form. These may be posted on the NCRSP web site to be viewed before voting.

To submit bio and photo via email: Send to info@ncrsp.org include in the subject line: “NEA-R Nomination Bio” and the nominee’s name.